John Tams & Barry Coope

John Tams has had a career spanning four decades in every performance medium, performing on over 50 albums, but he is perhaps best known for writing the music for the War Horse theatre production He's joined as usual by his long-time musical partner, Barry Coope.

"Rich, diverse, contemporary and utterly compelling. It simply does not get any better than this."

Colin Hall, What's On in London

Gilmore & Roberts

Returning to Alstonefield after a two-year gap, popular contemporary acoustic duo Katriona Gilmore & Jamie Roberts combine award-winning song-writing with astounding musicianship and trademark harmonies to create a powerful wall of sound. Nominated three times at the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards.

"Head and shoulders above their contemporaries"

Rockin' Magpie

Edgelarks (Philip Henry & Hannah Martin)

The new band name comes with a new project, taking the roots of their previous work - British traditional music, Indian classical slide guitar, stomping roots with beatbox harmonica – and adds a strong stem of original writing.

"Really sophisticated, quite brilliant."

Mark Radcliffe, BBC Radio 2 & 6

Clive Carroll

Described by Acoustic Guitar magazine as "Probably the best and most original young acoustic guitarist/composer in Britain", Clive Carroll creates a sound world all his own, with a signature blend of warmth and humour that belies his dazzling technical skill. Expect hints of classical Bartok, Frank Zappa, and even touches of jazz and Delta blues.

Clive Gregson 'The Farewell Tour'

Superb songwriter, singer, guitarist, record producer and past member of Richard Thompson's band, Clive Gregson has followed many musical diversions. Between 1985 and 1992, he formed a partnership with Christine Collister that Rolling Stone called "the state of the art in British folk-rock". 2020 sees him embark on his final tour as a solo working musician.

"One of Britain's most cultured singer-songwriters" The Times

June

Ex-Albion Band Chris is best-known for her duo partnership with Julie Matthews, and the all-female band Daphne's Flight. Blessed with a beautiful voice, daughter Kellie was also with the Albion Band for a period, before pursuing a career in radio production. She is now producer of the BBC Folk Awards and a much sought-after contributor to other people's projects (now and again, she tours with her mum!).

Amy Wadge

Return visit of the singer-songwriter responsible for the music for the BBC series Keeping Faith. She's also a Grammy award winner for the song Thinking Out Loud, which she wrote with Ed Sheeran, as well as being a writer for many big-name artists such as Kylie Minogue and Camila Cabello.
