

Private Charles Featherstone

Charles Featherstone was born in early 1888 in Biggin, near Hartington. He was the eldest child of Hannah Featherstone, although there is no record of his father on either his baptism or marriage record.

He had a younger sister, Clara (born 1889) and brother, Frank (born 1895)

The first census record for Charles is in 1891, where he was living with his maternal grandparents, Thomas and Mary Featherstone, in Heathcote near Hartington. There is no census record for his mother, whilst his sister was at the home of Joseph and Harriet Webster in Hartington.

Charles and Mary had their only child, Charles William (Charlie), in October 1913. Sadly, he was born with a mental handicap.

With the outbreak of war the following year, Charles was enlisted to 2nd Btn. Sherwood Foresters (Notts & Derby Regiment) 27554. Records have not been located to ascertain exactly when or where he enlisted or where he served.

He was awarded the Victory medal and British War medal, both for campaign services.

An announcement of his death was recorded in the Ashbourne News on 14 June 1918

After Charles' death, Polly lived in Milldale, in the cottage that is now known as Polly's Cottage, until her death in 1953. Their son, after initially attending Alstonefield School was later sent to a special school and only returned home for a holiday once a year. Charlie died in 1990 in Walsall.
