12
Feb

Charlie Dore

with Gareth Huw
Davies and Steeleye
Span's Julian Littman

One of the UK's most respected singer songwriters and recent winner of the FATEA Female Artist of the Year award for her album, Like Animals. Best known for her 70s hit Pilot of the Airwaves, artists including Tina Turner, George Harrison and Celine Dion, have recorded her songs.

Clive Carroll

26
Feb

Acclaimed guitarist and composer Clive Carroll has created a sound world all his own, with a signature blend of warmth and humour that belies his dazzling technical skill. He has worked with guitar greats such as John Williams and John Renbourn.

"Probably the best and most original young acoustic guitarist/composer in Britain" Acoustic Guitar Magazine

29
Mar

Heidi Talbot

Formerly with US all-girl band, Cherish the Ladies, Irish born Heidi's gossamer voice switches easily between Celtic and Americana, but subtlety is her magic ingredient. Equally at home in front of a Symphony Orchestra, a Performing Arts Centre, a Folk Festival or even at the White House, she has worked with Mark Knopfler, Graham Coxon (Blur), Eddi Reader and more.

Painted Sky & Bella Gaffney

23
Apr

Painted Sky have only recently emerged onto the scene, but have already made a lasting impression with their progressive sound. Ex-Magpies member Bella Gaffney was a Celtic Connections award-winner, who writes folk-inspired songs and interprets traditional pieces.

14
May

Carrie Martin & Gordon Giltrap

Carrie Martin is a singer-songwriter who writes heart-warming songs and has a beautiful, rich voice. She's also an accomplished guitarist - not surprising given that she was mentored by Gordon Giltrap, described by Deep Purple's Richie Blackmore as "one of the best acoustic guitar players in the world."

4-5 June Queen's Jubilee 'Transatlantic Sessions'

A weekend of music celebrating UK, US and Canadian folk/roots music

Saturday (7.30pm)

Tom McConville & Michael Biggins
+ Brooks Williams
& Dan Walsh

Four virtuoso players from England, Scotland and the US come together for a one-off show.

Sunday (7.30pm)

Suzie Underleiger (aka Oh Susannah)

Support: Chris Cleverley

Toronto-based Suzie Ungerleider has recorded for many years under the name 'Oh Susanna', releasing nine widely acclaimed albums to date.

Cara Dillon

1
July

This extraordinary Irish singer has been captivating audiences and achieving exceptional acclaim for over 20 years. She has (according to Mojo magazine) "Quite possibly the world's most beautiful female voice". Accompanied as usual by her husband and musical partner Sam Lakeman on piano, this is a genuinely rare opportunity to see Cara perform in such an intimate setting.

Joe Danks 'Seaspeak'

23
July

In 2019, Joe Danks became musician in residence at The National Maritime Museum (NMM), and the genesis of his first album 'Seaspeak' (2021) began, bringing to life some of the museum's most affecting stories and the role of the sea through history. For this show, Joe is joined by contributing musicians to the Seaspeak album.

Chris & Kellie While

3
Sept

Mother and daughter Chris & Kellie have been making music together for all of Kellie's life. Ex-Albion Band Chris is best-known for her duo partnership with Julie Matthews. Kellie is a much sought-after contributor to other people's albums by artists such as Kate Rusby and has collaborated with the likes of Eddi Reader, Beth Nielsen Chapman and Fairport Convention.
